CONFESSIONS

A Priest will be available 1 hour before all Celebrations

"Many are called, but few are chosen."

Many were called and invited to attend the banquet. But more than that was expected of them. They had to answer the call by saying a total "yes" to Jesus.

Read : Matthew 22: 1-14

Reflect: Several times Jesus used the example of a wedding banquet to describe what the kingdom of heaven is like. Pay close attention to the story to discover what kind of people are invited and why many are in danger of missing heaven's banquet, according to Jesus.

Pray: Ask God for grace to help you to grasp more fully your role to live as an ambassador of Jesus Christ. Pray that God would grant you unique opportunities to share the gospel with others.

Matthew 22:1-14

Many are invited, but few are chosen. (Matthew 22: 14)

Does this sentence give you a chill? Maybe it makes you wonder, "I hope I get chosen for heaven." Or maybe you question the justice in it. "If God has already invited people, why would He not choose them?" Today's parable offers some answers.

First, we hear about a king who decided to look elsewhere when the first set of invitees refused to come to his son's wedding and abused his messengers. "Those who were invited were not worthy to come," he said (Matthew 22:8). Then, we see him telling his servants to go invite everyone they could find. Look at the "worthiness" of the king's initial invitees. They turned out to be murderers, so the king probably knew they weren't "worthy" to begin with. But that didn't matter. Even if they had a sinful past, that did not have to disqualify them. By accepting the invitation and making their way toward the banquet hall, they would have placed themselves on the path of repentance and new life. The same is true of the second group, which was made up of the "bad and good alike" (Matthew 22:10). They were not bound by whatever they had done or failed to do earlier. The same is true for you. Your worthiness is not based on whether you have done everything right. You become worthy as you accept his invitation. Every step you take that brings you closer to the heavenly banquet hall makes you more worthy: It weaves another thread of the garment of holiness that all the saints in heaven wear.

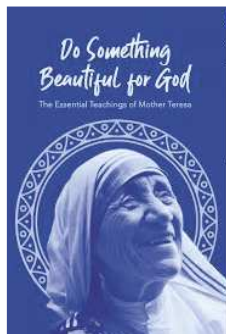

God invites everyone to His banquet. His light shines "on the bad and the good" and "on the just and the unjust" (Matthew 5:45). Ever and always, He is calling out, urging, even begging us to come to Him. Everyone is called; may we all accept the invitation so that we can be counted among the "chosen" (Matthew 22:14).

"Thank you, Jesus, for inviting me to your banquet! Help me to choose to live for you this day."

Isaiah 25:6-10 • Psalm 23: 1-6 • Philippians 4: 12-14, 19-20

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Meals on wheels is in need of volunteers, cooks, Drivers and helpers, if you are able to volunteer or for more information please contact Susan on 438-877-3373

Bring love into your homes. If you truly love God, start loving your son or your daughter and your spouse. And the elderly, where are they? In nursing homes! Why are they not with you? And where is the retarded child? In an institution! Why is he not with you? That child is a gift from God.
