1 John 3:1-2

We shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. (John 3:2)

What a marvelous promise!

John is telling us that when we see Jesus in heaven, "as He is," we will be transformed (John 3:2). That vision of Christ will have such a powerful effect on us that all of the sinful tendencies we have accumulated over the years will be no more, and we will become like Him. All our selfishness, our pride, our lusts, and our pettiness will melt away. But what is it about seeing Jesus that brings about such a change? After all, His three closest disciples—including John himself—saw Jesus' heavenly glory at the transfiguration, but it didn't have as powerful an effect on them. They still had a lot of changing to do (Mark 9:2-12).

The difference is that in heaven we will see Jesus as He is after His death and resurrection. We'll see Him as the "Lamb" who was "slain" for us and who bears the marks of His death as emblems of His love (Revelation 5:6). And not only will we see the evidence of Jesus' love, but we'll be enveloped in it.

The world has never seen a love as complete and pure as the love Jesus has for us. There is no self-interest in it. There is no ulterior motive. There are no conditions. There is only love: pure and strong and merciful. And where there is love like this, there is no room for sin of any kind.

That's what the future holds. But this vision isn't limited to the day we stand before Jesus in heaven. We can "see" Him every single day: in our prayer, in the Scriptures, and in the people and the world around us. And most powerfully, we can see Him—and receive Him—at every Mass: the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. So come and behold Jesus today. Come and see Him with the eyes of your heart, and let what you see make you a little more like Him.

"Jesus, open my eyes to see you and my heart to welcome you today."

Acts 4:8-12 • Psalm 118: 1,8-9,21-23,26,28-29 • John 10: 11-18

We are commanded to love God and our neighbor equally, without difference. We don't have to look for opportunities to fill this command, they're all around us, twenty-four hours a day. You must open your eyes wide so that you can see the opportunities to give free service, wholehearted, right where you are, in your family. If you don't give such service to your family, you will not be able to give it to those outside your home.

REGISTRATION FORM

Alpha Prayer Team:

*Please include the prayer below with your own.
"Come Holy Spirit! We have made a space for You in our hearts, in our lives, in our Parish. We invite You into the hearts of all who are searching for a deeper relationship with Jesus. Help them let go of whatever is taking up the space in their hearts and lives, to leave a space for You to dwell instead. So many need the Hope that You bring. So many long for the peace that only comes from knowing You. Come Holy Spirit!"*

Pope Francis Words of Mercy

MERCY THAT HEALS

No one can be excluded from the mercy of God; everyone knows the way to access it, and the Church is the house where everyone is welcomed and no one is rejected. Her doors remain wide open, so that those who are touched by grace may find the assurance of forgiveness. The greater the sin, the greater the love that must be shown by the Church to those who repent. With how much love Jesus looks at us! With how much love he heals our sinful hearts! Our sins never scare him.
