Quotes From the Saints

Saint Gertrude - November 16

Gertrude was born in Eisleben, Germany on the Feast of the Epiphany in 1256, two centuries before Luther. However, she lived during the same time as many of the great saints including St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Dominic.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary. O my adorable and loving Saviour, consume my heart with the burning fire with which Yours is aflamed. Pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love.

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.
(Hebrews 10:18)

In just a few verses, the author of Hebrews makes quite a bold claim. He tells us that the centuries-old practice of offering sacrifices to God has been fulfilled. The entire Temple apparatus - its feasts and fasts, its priests and practices, its liturgies and legalities - is no longer necessary. No more sin offerings. No more bulls or goats or rams or turtledoves. Why? Because one single sacrifice of much greater power and effect has taken place: the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. This sacrifice has done far more than any priestly sacrifice ever could. Whereas the ancient sacrifices obtained a cleansing from the sin of the past year and so had to be reenacted over and over again, Jesus' sacrifice of his life has washed away all sins for all time.

Every sin, from the sin of Adam to the final sin before the Second Coming, has been atoned for. Now anyone who turns to Jesus can be cleansed and receive the pledge of eternal salvation. This is the true heart of the gospel. Christ has done for you what you could never do for yourself. His perfect sacrifice has opened the gates of heaven - to you - forever. No matter who you are or what you have done, you can "confidently approach the Throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help" (Hebrews 4:16).

Keep this magnificent truth in the forefront of your mind, especially when you start to feel discouraged by your sin or if you begin to feel the pangs of guilt for sins you've already confessed. Jesus is seated "forever at the right hand of God," and all His enemies - especially sin - are being made His footstool (Hebrews 10:12, 13). He is also standing by your side, assuring you of His mercy and salvation. Take some time right now to silence your heart and listen to Him. "All praise to You, Jesus! You are my salvation!"

Daniel 12:1-3 • Psalm 16:5, 8-11 • Mark 13:24-32

Prayer is not asking. Prayer is putting oneself in the hands of God, at His disposition, and listening to His voice in the depth of our hearts.
