Quotes From the Saints

Saint Columban - November 23

Columban lived from the middle of the 6th century until 615. Born in Ireland, he was one of the greatest Irish monks who carried Celtic Christianity throughout Europe at a time when paganism threatened to extinguish the faith.

*"Be gentle to the weak,
firm to the stubborn,
steadfast to the proud,
humble to the lowly."*

My kingdom does not belong to this world. (John 18:36)

Pilate must have been confused. He had asked Jesus point-blank, "Are You the King of the Jews?" (John 18:33). Jesus didn't answer him directly, but he made it clear that His kingdom wasn't what Pilate had been envisioning. Instead, He said this kingdom "is not here" and "does not belong to this world" (18:36).

So where is Jesus' kingdom, and what's it like? On today's feast of Christ the King, let's reflect on God's kingdom and how it compares with the kingdom of the world. The kingdom of the world values power, wealth, honor, and pleasure. These things are not bad in themselves, but we can easily make them idols. We can even fool ourselves into thinking that we are not going after them. But if they are the primary reason we get out of bed in the morning, and if we spend most of our time seeking them out, then we are probably too immersed in the kingdom of the world.

The kingdom of God, on the other hand, values sacrificial love, forgiveness, humility, and service. Such things are not always attractive because they come with a cost. Yet the reward is always greater - not only in this life, as we experience Jesus' abundant love and mercy, but also in the next, when we will see Him face-to-face and live in His joyful embrace forever.

Today as you worship the King of kings at Mass, think about what you most value and what you are most anxious to achieve. Then, see if these things are more in line with God's kingdom or with the kingdom of the world. We are all tempted at times to straddle both kingdoms at the same time. But over and over again, we are faced with choices to serve one or the other. May we always choose to serve Jesus, our King and Lord!

"Praise You, King of kings and Lord of lords!"

Daniel 7:13-14 • Psalm 93:1-2,5 • Revelation 1:5-8

Spread the love of God through your life, but only use words when necessary
Love cannot remain by itself – it has no meaning.
Love has to be put into action, and that action is service.

Pope's Monthly Prayer Intentions
People who suffer from depression:
We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.
