Next Week's Readings

Ezekiel 18.25-28 • Psalm 25

Philippians 2.1-11 • John 10:27

St Vincent de Paul – September 27th

Read some chapter of a devout book....It is very easy and most necessary, for just as you speak to God when at prayer, God speaks to you when you read.

Thank you for your generosity.
Offerings: $3,019.00
(does not include e-donations)

Matthew 20:1-16

You too go into my vineyard. (Matthew 20:4)

Jesus told this parable to help us better understand how generous and merciful God is. But the seeming unfairness of the landowner's decision can still leave us feeling a bit unsettled. We might react differently, however, when we consider the lives of two people who, like the workers in this parable, came to the vineyard later in life.

Felix Leseur was raised Catholic in Nineteenth-century France but lost his faith in medical school and became an atheist. His wife, Elizabeth on the other hand, grew closer to God and began praying fervently for her husband's conversion. After her death at the age of forty-seven, Felix began reading her diary. The deep faith he saw there touched him, and he returned to the Lord at the age of fifty-six and eventually became a priest.

St. Angela of Foligno was born in 1248 to a wealthy family in Umbria, Italy. Married at a young age, she revelled in the worldly life and all its trappings. But a series of natural disasters and an ongoing war led her to reexamine her priorities. At the age of thirty-seven - considered midlife for that time - she sought the Lord's mercy in Confession. Then after the premature deaths of her husband, mother, and two children, she gave up all her possessions and became a lay Franciscan.

When we hear about people like Felix and Angela, we don't begrudge them the heavenly reward they are now enjoying. It doesn't matter that they came later to the vineyard. God and His angels in heaven still rejoiced, and so should we anytime we hear of someone turning to God later in life.

God is always inviting people to "go into my vineyard" (Matthew 20:4). Today at Mass, pray for the people you know who have not yet accepted His invitation. May they one day receive the reward He so graciously has in store for them!

"Father, I praise You for Your mercy and generosity, which have no bounds!"

Isaiah 55:6-9 - Psalm 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

Philippians 1:20-24, 27

Private Worship

The Pope's Prayer Intention

September 2023 - For people living on the margins

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Around Our Parish

There will be a second collection after Communion next weekend for our Capital Debt Fund.

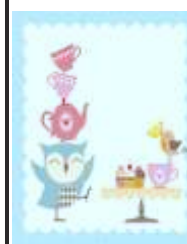

Thank you to Father McDonald for leading our retreat last weekend. A special thank you to those who took time from their busy schedules to attend.

CWL Penny Fair

All are welcome to our Parish Hall on Wednesday October 11th at 7 p.m. for what promises to be a wonderful evening of fun and laughter with members of our Catholic Women's League! A chance to meet old friends and make new ones. There will be lots of fun prizes to be won, plus a raffle for additional prizes! Refreshments will be served. Bring a friend!
