Isaiah 35:4-7

Then will the . . . ears of the deaf be cleared. (Isaiah 35:5)

Anyone who has ever experienced hearing loss knows how isolating it can be. The deaf man in today's Gospel must have also struggled with not being able to take part in conversations or understand what was being said. So when Jesus took him off by himself, looked to heaven and said, "Be opened!" the man's life changed radically (Mark 7:34).

In today's first reading, the prophet Isaiah promised that when the Lord came to deliver Israel, He would heal the blind and deaf (35:5). The people who witnessed the deaf man's healing saw this promise fulfilled in Jesus and even alluded to it when they said, "He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak" (Mark 7:37).

Jesus came to open our ears, too. He doesn't want us to be isolated from Him or others. But we can't be healed of our "spiritual deafness" if we fail to spend time with Him each day. We need to get "away from the crowd" (Mark 7:33) – away from all the clatter and distractions so that we can better listen to what Jesus wants to say to us. We also need a heart open to hearing His words, especially if He shows us where we need to change.

We can be deaf, too, to the people around us, most especially our loved ones. We can tune out their concerns and struggles because we've heard them one too many times. Or we can listen to their words but not really try to understand what's going on beneath the surface, in their hearts.

That's why it's important to start each day asking the Lord to "clear" your ears (Isaiah 35:5). He wants you to hear Him speaking to you, and He wants you to really listen to the people in your life. Just as He opened the ears of the man in today's Gospel, you can trust that He will open your ears, too. There's so much He wants you to hear and understand!
"Jesus, I want to listen. Open my ears today!"

A DAILY PRAYER AS WE GET OLDER

Take my hands oh Blessed Mother, hold me firmly lest I fall
I grow nervous while walking, and humbly on thee I call
Guide me over every crossing, watch me when I'm on the stairs
Let me know that you're beside me, listen to my fervent prayers.

Bring me to my destination, safely along the way
Bless my every undertaking and my duties for the day

And when evening creeps upon me

I'll never fear to be alone

Blessed Mother take my hand and lead me home.

Amen.
