Mark 9:30-37

If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and servant of all. (Mark 9:35)

The first shall be last? This is one of those sayings of Jesus that goes against our natural desires. We don't want to be the last one in line, and we certainly don't want to be the servant! So how can we become the humble servants that the Lord is calling us to be?

Jesus provides an answer at the end of today's Gospel passage:

"Whoever receives one child such as this in My name, receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not Me but the One who sent Me" (Mark 9:37). Jesus is telling us that He is inseparable from His people. He loves us so deeply that He died for us and came to live in our hearts.

So what we do for others, we are doing for Christ. This truth should revolutionize the way we interact with the people around us. Think about it: if Jesus walked through our front door today, we would immediately get busy addressing His needs. "Come in, Jesus; sit down, Jesus. You look hungry; I'll make you anything you want to eat." We would be so quick to serve Him that we just might overwhelm Him with kindness! But when we see a brother or sister in need, we often, either explicitly or implicitly, weigh our options: Does this fit in my schedule? How much will this cost me? What will I get out of this in return?

God is calling us out of any selfish regard for ourselves and into a selfless love for others. Today, ask for the eyes to see other people the way God the Father sees them: as another Christ. This will paint everyday situations in a new light. Christ is the lonely parishioner who is looking for a friend; He is the sick neighbour who needs a meal. When you are serving such people, you are serving the Lord Himself! "Lord Jesus, teach me to imitate You, the King who came to serve and not to be served."

This Thursday, September 26 is the Feast of our Patron Saint, Jean Brébeuf and the North American Martyrs.

We will continue the Novena during Mass to that day. If you would like a small prayer to say at home:

St. Jean, pray that each of us might find the passion to reach out to those not like us. Help us to be confident in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In your holy martyrdom, inspire our imaginations to think not of the cost as we serve the Lord. Amen.

Upcoming EVENTS

This Thursday, September 26 will have a visitor from the Convent of St. Elisabeth in Belarus following the 9:00 a.m. Celebration.

She will give a presentation on the history and service of their community that helps children without parental support, the patients of the psychiatric hospital and the sufferers from drug and alcohol dependence.

A table with religious articles will be arranged for sale.
