Acts 5:27-32, 40-41

You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. (Acts 5:28)

The Acts of the Apostles contains such amazing stories that it can sometimes seem like we are reading a work of fiction. But that's just not the case. Take today's first reading, for example. There really were men and women who, in the face of severe persecution, kept filling Jerusalem with the good news. Peter and the apostles really were questioned, tortured, and imprisoned. But they didn't back down. Instead, they replied, "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

It might be hard to relate to such boldness. So let's imagine how, in our own day and age, we can "fill" the places we inhabit with the good news of Jesus Christ.

Think about a place that you go to regularly, a place that involves some waiting. Maybe it's the school pickup line or a subway ride or the time between your classes. Now picture those places as your own "Jerusalem" (Acts 5:28). Imagine the good news of the saving love and mercy of God bubbling up inside of you, filling you with life and joy. You feel as if you can't contain it. So instead of scrolling on your phone, you hold your head high, your smile widens, and you look around for someone to share it with,

As you keep this posture of openness and connection to the joy of the gospel, you will naturally start getting to know some of the people who are also waiting with you. That will lead to new friendships. After a while, the crossing guard might tell you about her upcoming surgery, opening up a space for you to offer to pray for her. Some of your classmates might appreciate your openness, and you could strike up a conversation about your faith. Or maybe you end up engaging with a fellow subway passenger.

This is you, filling your own "Jerusalem" with the gospel! "Holy Spirit, give me the boldness to share the good news wherever I go."

Psalm 30:2, 4-6, 11-13

Revelation 5:11-14

John 21:1-19
