Luke 9:11 - 17

Five Loaves and two fish are all we have. (Luke 9:13)

Today's feast of Corpus Christi gives us the opportunity to celebrate the abundant generosity of the Lord. Our Gospel reading tells us how Jesus fed the thousands who followed Him by miraculously multiplying five loaves of bread and two fish. As wondrous as that Miracle was, we see His generosity even more abundantly in His gift of the Eucharist. At every Mass throughout the world, Jesus becomes fully present: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. As Saint Carlos Acutis would say, "Jerusalem is right on our doorstep" in the Blessed Sacrament.

It takes faith to accept the truth of this profound miracle. But every now and then, God confirms our faith with a miracle, like the one He performed at St Mary's Parish in Chirattakonam India, in April of 2001. During Adoration, three red stains appeared on the Host. Then, a few days later, the same Host bore the likeness of a human face. Responding to these events, the local archbishop, wrote. "For us believers, what we have seen is something that we have always believed." (A description of this, as well as many other Eucharistic miracles, can be found at carloacutus.com.)

Whether we experience a Eucharistic miracle or not, Jesus is still present in every Mass. Just as He multiplied the five loaves and two fishes that day, He takes something so small - a simple piece of bread - and transforms it into His very flesh, to feed His people.

Today, offer Jesus your very self. Yes, the little that you have to offer Him is enough! Give Him your worries, your cares, but also your blessings and gifts. Trust in His miracle-working love and power to do amazing things in and through you.

"Jesus, nothing is too small for You. I worship You in the Eucharist, and I offer you the little that I have. Come and work wonders in me!"

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

Eucharistic Miracles Around the World

Exhibition conceived and created by Blessed Carlo Acutis and presented by Louise Normand at St. Josephs Oratory between June 21 to 29, 2025

Level 4 of the Marcel Lalande Pavilion

Conceived and created by Carlo Acutis, an Italian teenager who died of leukemia in 2006 at the age of 15, the exhibition presents several of the main Eucharistic miracles recognized by the Church that have occurred over the centuries throughout the world. The exhibition has already been seen on 5 continents, in hundreds of parishes and in the most famous Marian shrines such as Fatima, Lourdes and Guadeloupe, to name but a few. This young Carlo, a model for our youth and a computer genius, was beatified in Assisi, Italy, on October 10, 2020. FREE ADMISION
